

ICARE Happy Tails

Nestle, formerly known as Willy, has lived in his new home with Kevin & Kimberly in Columbia, MO, for over 7 months now. They can't imagine life without him – "smart, energetic, loyal & trusting" are just a few of the adjectives Kevin uses to describe this happy dog.

Does everyone remember Dandi, who was rescued the day before she was going to be shot (she was a breeder's "mistake")? Well, according to her family – David, Heather, Colby & Sydney – she's not a mistake, she's the Queen of the House. Heather says, "Dandi is our children's best friend. How anyone could abandon such a beautiful, loving dog is beyond us." This special girl lives in Batesville, AR.

Dakoda, formerly Digger Williams, lives in St. Louis, MO with Jamie and Jason. "He loves to snuggle, sleeps with us every night" and is especially good with young kids. Dakoda has a dog seat belt for car rides (which he loves) & a winter coat for cold weather.

Bella is about 7 months old in this picture. She is living in N.H. and makes the circuit of all the tournaments during softball season. As you can see, she has her own blanket and sunglasses. Her "favorite" is getting as many belly rubs as she can.

Kya lives with Chelsea & Brian, also in N.H. In this photo, she had just celebrated her first birthday, complete with her special doggie birthday cookies. She loves to run and play with other animals.

The Friz has been getting spoiled by Linda and Chuck in Mtn. Home, AR, for 3 years now. Chuck says, "She is great, still the boss, and allows us to stay in her house, as long as grandma has a pocket full of cookies."
